Report of seminar

Women rights knowledge is important in today's time and it has become an urgent priority. Despite considerable progress in the past decade, society continues to fail to meet the right of women at key moment of life particularly in there and in older age. The seminar provides the latest and most comprehensive evidence available to date on women specific rights, needs and challenge.

The seminar was delivered by Advocate Pinky Sharma. The seminar was held on 30th November 2021, the venue for the seminar was PIMS Auditorium.

Ms. Pinky Sharma addressed the attendees and shared her personal experiences and exposure. The seminar started with making aware all women about their rights. She stressed on the fact that women have a lot of rights however many of them have no idea of it. She said, times have changed and today most of the women are self dependent and out of the clutches of harassment and inhuman treatment, one such example is Domestic Violence Act, 2005. Not many are aware of this Act, so she requested the audience to spread this awareness to concerned women so that they can exercise their rights.
