About Event:

A seminar on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was organized by PIMS (BBA, BCA) on 24th Feb.2022. From 11:00AM to 11:00PM. The seminar was held at PIMS Auditorium.

Mrs Priyanka Gehlot, Legal Practitioner and expert in IPR delivered the seminar for the students of PIMS (BBA, BCA). Mr Narendra Saini welcomed the expert and requested to take over the seminar. IPR is a contemporary act useful for technical and non technical students, it's information is also useful in day to day life, be it personal or professional life. In short IPR touches everyone's life sometimes or the other, the IPR Act provides all information and much more about the IPR.

Mrs. Gehlot started the seminar with an introduction of IPR and the basic concepts associated with it. In Fact she introduced IPR in such a manner that the students understood the concept and were anxious to know more about the topic.

She explained the meaning of IPR as per the Act and broke it down so that it is understood clearly. She also explained the terms Patent, Trade mark and IPR and they are related and how they function. The seminar also mentioned the economical and moral responsibility with the help of easy examples.

Finally Mrs. Gehlot threw some light on the legal aspects of IPR and how people can be sued due to infringement and explained how patent owner is protected by the law. All in all this was one of the most useful seminars held in PIMS in recent times. The seminar ended with a question answer session which provided an opportunity for students to clear their doubts. Mr. Rajesh Verma (BBA) gave a thanks giving speech and wrapped off the seminar on a positive note.
