Event Description:

Chemistry Department has organized a “One Day state Level Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights and Patents” (10/23/2023). The program is started with welcome note by the Principal followed by the lecture session. During this workshop the following points were discussed about Introduction about Patents, Types of Patents, Uses and applications of Patents, Understanding the various Patents and if else rules.

Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) are a set of exclusive rights protected by law which are accorded to creators or persons over their creations for a certain time period. An IP right holder can realize value from its intellectual assets through utilizing it internally for its own processes or share it externally through provision of goods and services to customers. The latter can be achieved through legal mechanisms such as licensing or assignment. In today's globally competitive environment, intellectual property has placed itself on a pedestal in the context of economic growth and is becoming increasingly important. Intellectual Property (IP) is the fuel that powers the engine of prosperity, fostering invention and innovation. The increasing significance of intangible assets in the global economy is forcing business organizations to actively manage their IP as a key driver for building and sustaining their competitive advantage and achieving superior performance. IPRs are now being used not only as a tool to protect creativity and generate revenue but also to build strategic alliances for socio-economic and technological growth. Accordingly, in order to foster the protection of innovations and creativity, the Intellectual Property Office under the Ministry of Commerce and Industry is dedicated to mobilize the use of such technological advancement for the economic development of the country. The generation of IP largely takes place at the State level through small, medium and big industries, academic institutions and individuals. Most States have not yet evolved their IP strategies and ecosystems in terms of effective facilitating services for all sectors including MSMEs and start-ups, creating awareness, conducting training programs, systems for utilization of IPR etc. States needs to maximize the benefits from their intellectual property by stimulating higher levels of innovation through a judicious system of rewards, ensuring timely and effective legal protection for IP and leveraging strategic alliances for enhancing the value of the intellectual property created in the State. Dr Rajesnda Kumar enlightened the audience on the history of Intellectual Property Rights & said that protection of IPR (intangible property) has definite benefits, such as to propagate innovative culture, profitability, market leadership and helps creation of wealth for the individual and Nation. She also told about classification of software patents, functional components of software and overview of prior art search.

Title: Report on One Day Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights on Pattern Recognition Methods

Date: 7/8/2022

Venue: Seth G B Podar College, Nawalgarh, Jhunjhunu

Participants: 45 students

Expert: Dr. Ram Mohan, Tagor College, Ringus

Introduction:

On 7th Aug. 2022, a one-day workshop on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) focusing on Pattern Recognition Methods was organized at Seth G B Podar College in Nawalgarh, Jhunjhunu. The workshop aimed to provide students with an understanding of the importance of IPR in the field of pattern recognition and its implications in various industries. The workshop was conducted by Seth G B Podar College in Nawalgarh, Jhunjhunu and Dr. Ram Mohan, an expert in the field from Tagor College, Ringus.

Workshop Overview: The workshop commenced at 11:00 AM with a warm welcome and introduction of the expert, Dr. Ram Mohan. The participants consisted of 45 students from various disciplines, including computer science, engineering, and mathematics. The workshop was divided into multiple sessions, each focusing on different aspects of IPR and pattern recognition methods.

Session 1: Introduction to Intellectual Property Rights

Dr. Ram Mohan began the workshop by providing an overview of Intellectual Property Rights and its significance in protecting innovative ideas and creations. He explained various forms of intellectual property, including patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets. The session also covered the process of obtaining and enforcing these rights.

Session 2: Basics of Pattern Recognition

In this session, Dr. Ram Mohan introduced the concept of pattern recognition and its applications in different fields. He discussed the fundamental techniques and algorithms used in pattern recognition, such as classification, clustering, and feature extraction. The participants were engaged through interactive discussions and practical examples.

Session 3: Intellectual Property Rights in Pattern Recognition

The third session focused on the intersection of IPR and pattern recognition methods. Dr. Ram Mohan explained how IPR plays a crucial role in protecting pattern recognition algorithms, software, and databases. He discussed the challenges and strategies involved in obtaining patents for pattern recognition methods.

Session 4: Case Studies and Real-World Applications

To provide a practical perspective, Dr. Ram Mohan presented several case studies highlighting the importance of IPR in pattern recognition methods. He showcased examples from industries such as healthcare, finance, and security, where pattern recognition techniques are widely used. The participants actively participated in discussions and shared their insights.

Conclusion:

The one-day workshop on Intellectual Property Rights on Pattern Recognition Methods was successfully conducted, providing valuable knowledge and insights to the participants. Dr. Ram Mohan's expertise and interactive teaching style greatly enhanced the learning experience. The workshop served as a platform for students to gain a deeper understanding of IPR and its application in pattern recognition. The participants expressed their gratitude towards the organizing committee and the expert for organizing such an informative workshop.

Recommendations:

Based on the success of this workshop, it is recommended to organize similar events in the future to continue educating students and professionals about the importance of IPR in emerging technologies. Additionally, hands-on sessions or practical exercises could be incorporated to provide participants with a more comprehensive understanding of pattern recognition methods. Overall, the One Day Workshop on Intellectual Property Rights on Pattern Recognition Methods proved to be a valuable learning experience for the participants, equipping them with knowledge that can be applied in their future endeavors.

Introduction "

1. Introduction : Ice Breaker"

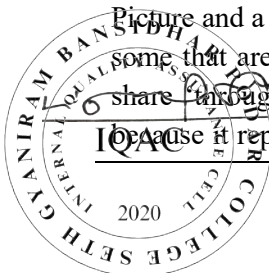

To get people in the mindset to share ownership over making the learning event successful, I often do an ‘appreciative’ exercise. Divide participants into groups of three or four and ask them to think about a peak experience of whatever the topic is (e.g. the best meeting you ever attended – or if that’s too hard, how about a reasonably successful meeting in the last month. The most interesting presentation you remember / the most successful piece of writing you’ve done etc.). Ask them to think about what made this so successful. Get them to share the experience with the other members of the group and the group to come up with some of the elements of success. Collect these “Elements of Success” on the flip chart. This exercise engages everyone and encourages positive attitudes. The purpose of icebreakers is to bring people together, familiarise them with each other, put them into the zone and basically break the ice as the name suggests. The purpose of team building activities is to bring the teams together, get them to go through a shared experience, solve problems, make decisions, manage limited resources and usually work against time. To address both, you can take advantage of great educational and entertaining tools in the form of board games. Some games last long which help to bring a team together and some can be quite short which could be ideal to break the ice. There are cooperative games, competitive games, or even games that don’t have a winner, but just one big loser! Some games abstract down the real world in such imaginative ways that become incredibly rewarding to experience. As such board games are great if you want to create a memorable event which is also educational as this is what many traditional team building games aim to achieve.

Speed Intros: I do a meet and greet version of speed dating. Have people pair up with someone they don’t know, then find a non-work or non-workshop connection with the person. 30 seconds per individual, 1 minute per pair. 3-5 minutes overall (meet 3-4 people). If people in the room know each other well, then they should find out something about that person they didn’t know before.

Find your Match: What has worked for me is to give each participant a slip of paper with information on it that is relevant to the topic or participants in general. They have to find the corresponding participant with the same information, introduce themselves, and talk briefly about what the information means to them.

HELLO exercise: “Hello” is an opener that directly relates to the workshop process and content. It uses a deck of playing cards and a few other items. The basic idea is that you prepare four questions related to individuals’ expectations, experience, questions and changes regarding the training.

Picture and a Few Words: Great collection of picture post cards, many of which have been sent to me by art galleries to advertising an opening and some that are recycled greeting/note cards. The process has many benefits: 1. Needs assessment 2. Sharing of common challenges 3. Ability to share through the picture choice, which allows for less personal exposure — not saying ‘I’m not good at xxx’ but rather ‘I chose this card because it represents times when I xxx’ 4. Good storytelling tool... curiosity level of group is high when they see what cards others have chosen.

5. Allows me to observe how comfortable they are with public speaking and what sort of audience members they are when others are sharing 6. Facilitating the grouping of challenges helps the group to identify commonalities and helps us all identify what we need to work on during the session.

Origami Cup: In this icebreaking / team building activity everyone makes a very simple origami cup (all you need is a piece of paper for each person, card stock. You make 3 or 4 simple folds to create the cup). Everyone put their cups on a tray. You fill each cup up with water and talk about how we are all like these paper cups. If all the cups are strong then the group is strong. If a cup loses some of the water then it spills on to the other cups. Each person on the team is like these cups. The better they “hold” their part of the work the less work that spills onto the team. You can then let the tray sit for about 5 or 10 minutes and then go back and look at the tray to see if the water is holding in each of the cups or if water has spilled into the tray. No matter the outcome people can have a visual representation of what it means to hold their part of the work together. The other part to this activity, if you are trying to talk about the value of healthy, “well” employees would be to show how a stronger paper (card stock) can hold water better than a paper that is worn out or thin.

Expectation Setting

Individual Success has plenty of people relying on them. Expectation-setting skills are the skills that help you communicate and manage your work and work production. They allow you to clearly set boundaries, define the scope of what is being done, and communicate effectively with others. Expectation-setting skills are crucial for Customer Success Managers because there will be times when you find yourself in a situation where the other person is expecting something that is too much. Maybe it’s out of scope, maybe it’s unrealistic, or perhaps it’s out of touch with the reality of the situation.

Pre-Assessment: Interview Skills

There are some easy steps that you can take that will increase your chances of success at interviews. First, remember that job interviews should be a process of two-way communication. Not only are they a tool for employers to use to evaluate you, but they are also an opportunity for you to assess the job, the organization, and to see if there is a "fit." The keys to a successful interview are preparation and practice. The following suggestions will help you prepare for an interview:

Self-evaluation It is important for you to think about yourself and your past experiences in order to be ready to articulate what you have to offer an employer.

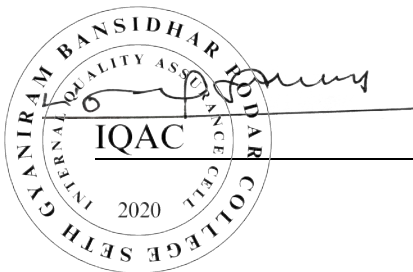

Consider the following topics:

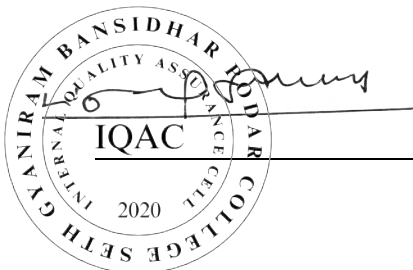

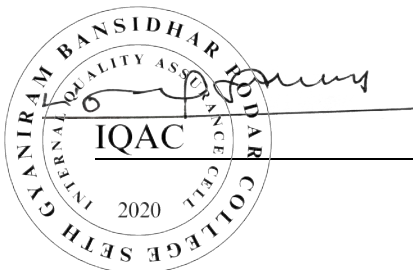

- How your present and past experience relate to the position
- Your current and future career goals
- What skills and expertise you have to offer
- The skills that you would like to develop or improve
- Location, salary, and lifestyle priorities
- Kinds of people and environments you prefer
- Past experiences you want to highlight such as volunteer work, hobbies, travel

REPORT

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS AWARENESS PROGRAMME

'Intellectual Property Rights Awareness Programme' was organized by Department of English on Tuesday, 03rd January 2023 at PIMS, Room No. 58. It was a two days workshop programme. All the faculty members and students of UG & PG of all streams attended the programme.

At first, Prof. Pramod Kumar Saini, Head of Department of English welcomed all the guests and introduced them before all.

Dr. Satyendra Singh, the principal, Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College, Nawalgarh presided the programme. The main speaker and the chief guest of this programme was Mrs. Nekita Choudhary (Ministry of Commerce and Industry, India). The special guest of the programme was Prof. Rakesh Mahala, Head of Department of Computer and Prof. Chetan Dhadheech, Head of Department of Chemistry.

Mrs. Nekita Choudhary shared information related to patent legal provisions like Copyright Act, GI Hall mark through power point presentation. Mrs. Joshi told that we need awareness in terms of intellectual development. Enthusiasm for patent in our young generation is continuously increasing. But there is a lack of information about it in the people of the rural environment. So the new discovery and research done in any field should be patented.

Protection of IPR allows the innovator, brand owner, patent holder and copyright holder to benefit from his/her work, labor and investment, which does not mean monopoly of the intellect. Such rights are set out in the International Declaration of Human Rights, which provides for the right to benefit from the protection of the moral and physical interests resulting from the right holder's work; literal or artistic product.

The students showed their great interest in this matter. They asked many questions related their problems.

All the questions were answered by the expert speaker in explained manner. The students showed their full satisfaction in it.

After it, Dr. Satyendra Singh, Principal, Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College, Nawalgarh expressed his gratitude towards the expert speaker, Mrs. Nekita Choudhary (Ministry of Commerce and Industry, India). He further said that Intellectual property is the product of the human intellect including creativity concepts, inventions, industrial models, trademarks, songs, literature, symbols, names, brands,...etc. Intellectual Property Rights do not differ from other property rights.

At the end, Prof. Sudhir Jangir concluded the session and thanked all the attendants of this event.

पोदार कॉलेज में बौद्धिक सम्पदा अधिकार (आई.पी.आर.) विषय पर दो दिवसीय वर्कशॉप का शुभारंभ

दी आनन्दीलाल पोदार ट्रस्ट, नवलगढ़ द्वारा संचालित सेठ जी.बी. पोदार कॉलेज में अंग्रेजी विभाग के तत्वाधान में दो दिवसीय बौद्धिक सम्पदा अधिकार विषय पर वर्कशॉप का शुभारंभ हुआ।

वर्कशॉप के उद्घाटन सत्र में मुख्य अतिथि एवं वक्ता उद्योग एवं वाणिज्य मन्त्रालय भारत सरकार नई दिल्ली से श्रीमती नेकिता चौधरी रही। कार्यक्रम की अध्यक्षता प्राचार्य डॉ. सत्येन्द्र सिंह ने की। विशिष्ट अतिथि प्रो. राकेश महला, प्रो. चेतन दाधीच रहे। कार्यक्रम का शुभारंभ माँ सरस्वती की प्रतिमा पर माल्यार्पण एवं दीप प्रज्ज्वलन के साथ हुआ।

अंग्रेजी विभाग के विभागाध्यक्ष प्रो. प्रमोद कुमार ने अतिथियों का परिचय प्रदान किया तथा स्वागत किया।

श्रीमती नेकिता चौधरी ने पेटेंट के कानूनी प्रावधानों, कॉपीराइट एक्ट, जी.आई. हॉलमार्क जैसे सम्बन्धित जानकारियों पॉवर प्वाइन्ट प्रेजेंटेशन के माध्यम से साझा की।

श्रीमती नेकिता चौधरी ने बताया कि बौद्धिक विकास की दृष्टि से हमें जागरूकता की आवश्यकता है। हमारी युवा पीढ़ी में पेटेंट को लेकर उत्साह लगातार बढ़ रहा है, किन्तु ग्रामीण परिवेश के लोगों में इसे लेकर जानकारी का अभाव है, अतः किसी भी क्षेत्र में होने वाली नवीन खोज एवं अनुसंधान का पेटेंट करवाया जाना चाहिए। श्रीमती चौधरी ने बताया कि शेखावाटी क्षेत्र के ऐतिहासिक धरोहरों का भी पेटेंट करवाया जा सकता है। उन्होंने पेटेंट की प्रक्रिया एवं क्रियाविधि पर भी विचार रखे।

इस अवसर पर सभी विभागाध्यक्ष एवं व्याख्याता मौजूद रहे। वर्कशॉप के प्रथम दिन 60 विद्यार्थियों ने भाग लिया। संचालन प्रो. शान्तिलाल जोशी ने किया। डॉ. दाउलाल बोहरा ने अतिथियों का आभार व्यक्त किया।

पोदार ट्रस्ट के चेयरमैन श्री राजीव के. पोदार, ट्रस्टी सुश्री वेदिका पोदार, अधिशाषी निदेशक श्री एम.डी. शानभाग ने वर्कशॉप के आयोजन पर प्रसन्नता व्यक्त की।
