The establishment of The Anandi Lal Podar Trust was possible only with the inspiration of the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi. Anandi Lal Podar Trust was initially known as "Anandi Lal Vidya Prachar Sanstha" at the time of its establishment. At the time of establishment of Podar Trust, Pandit Madan Mohan Malviya, late with Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi at Laburnum Road, Bombay (Mumbai). Great men like Seth Anandi Lal Podar, Seth Jamnalal Bajaj were present. In this meeting of August 2, 1922, it was decided to establish Shekhawati Brahmacharya Ashram in Nawalgarh and Gandhiji also decided to name the trust as Anandi Lal Vidya Prachar Sanstha. For the above work, Shriyut Anandi Lal Podar deposited a cash amount of Rs 2 lakh 1 thousand in Tilak Swaraj Fund. With the establishment of the Trust, Mahatma Gandhi was appointed the first Chairman, who remained the Chairman from 1922-30. Since then, Podar Trust has been continuously working in the field of education, skill development and social service, carrying forward the vision of Mahatma Gandhi.

Podar Trust's journey from primary education to higher education has been possible only due to the inspiration of Gandhiji. Today Seth ji. B. Podar College has set a unique example in the field of education and has achieved the distinction of prestigious 'A' grade of Shekhawati University.

Today Podar Trust is successfully running more than 10 educational institutions in Nawalgarh itself where thousands of students are studying. It is a matter of pride for us that the students of the educational institute established by Podar Trust inspired by Gandhiji are making their name famous not only in India but all over the world.

It is a boon for the entire Shekhawati region that the establishment of Podar Trust here has made a significant contribution in the fields of education, sports and social concerns.

The Anandi Lal Podar Trust, Nawalgarh pays tribute to Mahatma Gandhi on the occasion of "Martyrs Day" today, 30th January, 2024. On this occasion, all the employees of Podar educational institutions paid tribute to Mahatma Gandhi by paying floral tributes at the statue and Gandhi Park located in front of The Anandi Lal Podar Trust.
