Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College, Nawalgarh organized an orientation programme for the newly admitted UG and PG students at the Dr. Ramnath A. Podar Auditorium on 20 July 2023. The major objective of the programme was to make the students aware of the academic aspects of the course, the rules and regulations of the college.

The program was inaugurated by garlanding the statue of Maa Saraswati by the CEO of Poddar Trust, Dr. Rajendra Kumar, Principal Dr. Satyendra Singh, and Vice Principal Dr. Vinod Kumar Saini. First of all, Principal Dr. Satyendra Singh welcomed the newly arrived students and gave information about the activities to be organized in the college throughout the year.

Dr. Rajendra Kumar (C.O.O.), representative of the management of the Anandilal Podar Trust said the students about the expectations of the college from the students. Dr. Vinod Kumar Saini, Vice-Principal and Discipline Committee incharge gave an orientation regarding the rules and regulations of the college. Prof. Sandeep Kumar Jangir, Student Welfare Committee and Scholarship Coordinator informed the student about the entire student related committee and rules and regulations of all government and non-government scholarship schemes. Dr. Anil Kumar Sharma introduced everyone to NSS and its activities. Lft. Kamlesh Kumar presented the report of the Sports & NCC activities which were undertaken by the college in the previous

Circular

Zero-Tolerance Policy on Grievance Redressal

2

Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College, Nawalgarh is committed to maintaining a harmonious and supportive learning environment for all students. To this end, the college has established a dedicated Grievance Redressal Cell to address student concerns and ensure fair and just resolution of issues.

Objectives:

- Provide a platform for students to voice their concerns: Students can freely express their grievances without fear of reprisal.
- Ensure prompt and impartial resolution of issues: Complaints will be addressed efficiently and fairly.
- Maintain a transparent and accountable system: The Grievance Redressal Cell will operate with transparency and accountability.
- Promote a positive and supportive learning environment: By addressing student concerns effectively, the college aims to foster a positive and supportive learning environment for all.

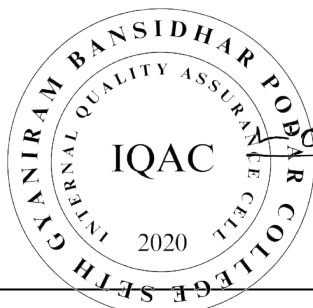

Procedure:

- Formal complaints: Students can submit written complaints to the Grievance Redressal Cell.
- Informal complaints: Students can also discuss their concerns informally with faculty members, the Student Council, or directly with the Grievance Redressal Cell.
- Confidentiality: The Grievance Redressal Cell will maintain the confidentiality of student information to the extent possible.
- Timely resolution: The Cell will strive to resolve all grievances within a reasonable timeframe.

Note:-This circular is intended to provide a general overview of the college's policies on Grievance Redressal For more detailed information, please refer to the concern authorities of the college.

Circular

Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College, Nawalgarh is a zone of zero-tolerance with regard to Anti-Ragging Cell. The college maintains a Grievance cell for redressal of students' grievances to maintain a harmonious educational environment on the campus.

UGC Regulations On Curbing The Menace Of Ragging In Higher Educational Institutions 2009

In exercise of the powers confirmed by clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 26 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, the UGC hereby makes the following Regulations: Every public declaration of intent by any institution, in any electronic audio visual, print or any other media, for admission of students to any course of study shall expressly provide that ragging is totally prohibited in the institution and anyone found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, whether actively or passively or being a part of a conspiracy to promote ragging, is liable to be punished in accordance with these regulations as well as under the provisions of any penal law for the time being in force. The application form for admission, enrolment, examination or registration shall contain an undertaking mandatorily in English or in one of the regional languages known to the applicant in Annexure 1 to these Regulations to be filled up and signed by the applicant and the parents guardian in Annexure-11. The institution shall constitute an Anti-ragging Cell to take appropriate decision in regards to punishment or otherwise, depending on the facts of its incident of ragging and nature and praisits of the incident of ragging established in the recommendation of the Anti Ragging squad.

Objectives of Anti-Ragging Cell:

A student making any offence regarding gender discrimination, eve-teasing, disrespectful acts or words are dealt with severity and can lead to dismissal of the student from the college. Ragging is a criminal offence, therefore, any students found indulging in ragging will face immediate expulsion and legal action will be taken against them.

The suggestion / complaint box is set up in front of the principal's and vice-principal's office and in college campus which students write their grievances and their suggestions for improving academics/administration in the college. Anonymity of students is protected. Advising all employees to have affection for students and to ensure healthy coordination among students, students & teachers and students and staff.

To help students to express their grievances frankly without any hesitation or any fear of being victimized in accordance with the rules and regulations of the college.
To resolve students grievances in a fair, impartial and just manner.
To ensure that a student is not deprived of the services offered by the institution for which she/he is entitled.

- Open communication channels: Encourage open communication between students, faculty, and administration to address concerns.
- Positive orientation programs: Organize interactive sessions to foster a sense of belonging and discourage ragging.
- Parental involvement: Involve parents in the anti-ragging efforts by educating them about the issue and encouraging them to monitor their children's well-being.
- Technology-based solutions: Utilize technology to monitor and report ragging incidents, such as anonymous reporting systems and online platforms.
- Collaboration with law enforcement: Work closely with law enforcement agencies to ensure that ragging cases are investigated and prosecuted effectively.
- Long-term prevention: Focus on long-term prevention strategies by promoting a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity in educational institutions.

Objectives of Student's Anti Ragging Cell

The objectives of a Students' Anti-Ragging Cell are to:

- Prevent Ragging: The primary goal is to create a ragging-free environment within the educational institution. This involves proactive measures to discourage and prevent any form of ragging from occurring.
- Raise Awareness: Conduct regular awareness campaigns, workshops, and seminars to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging, both physically and psychologically.
- Address Complaints: Establish clear procedures for students to report ragging incidents confidentially. The cell should promptly investigate complaints and take appropriate action against offenders.
- Provide Support: Offer support and counseling services to students who have been victims of ragging. This includes ensuring their safety, emotional well-being, and academic progress.
- Promote a Positive Environment: Foster a culture of respect, empathy, and inclusivity within the institution, where all students feel safe and valued.
- Collaborate with Stakeholders: Work closely with the administration, faculty, parents, and law enforcement agencies to ensure a comprehensive and effective anti-ragging strategy.
- Monitor and Review: Regularly review the effectiveness of anti-ragging measures and make necessary adjustments to improve their impact.

By actively pursuing these objectives, Students' Anti-Ragging Cells can play a crucial role in creating a safe and welcoming learning environment for all students.

Procedure for lodging grievance and anti ragging:

The procedure for addressing ragging in educational institutions typically involves several steps:

- 1. Prevention:
 - Awareness Campaigns: Conduct workshops, seminars, and interactive sessions to educate students about the harmful effects of ragging.
 - Anti-Ragging Affidavit: Students and their parents are required to sign an anti-ragging affidavit at the time of admission, acknowledging the consequences of engaging in ragging.
 - Orientation Programs: Organize positive orientation programs to foster a sense of belonging and discourage ragging.
- 2. Reporting:
 - Confidentiality: Establish clear procedures for students to report ragging incidents confidentially. This can include designated anti-ragging committees or helplines.
 - Prompt Action: Ensure that all reported incidents are promptly investigated and addressed.
- 3. Investigation:
 - Anti-Ragging Committee: A committee comprising faculty members, students, and administrative staff should investigate the reported incidents.
 - Evidence Gathering: Collect evidence, including witness statements and any available recordings.
- 4. Action:
 - Disciplinary Measures: If the allegations are found to be true, appropriate disciplinary measures should be taken against the offenders, as per the institution's rules and regulations.
 - Counseling: Provide counseling and support services to both the victims and offenders.
- 5. Monitoring and Review:
 - Regular Reviews: Regularly review the effectiveness of anti-ragging measures and make necessary adjustments.
 - Collaboration: Work closely with law enforcement agencies to ensure that ragging cases are investigated and prosecuted effectively.

Remember, the specific procedures may vary depending on the institution and local regulations. However, the core principles of prevention, reporting, investigation, action, and review remain essential in combating ragging effectively.

Punishable ingredients of Ragging:

Ragging can take various forms, including physical, mental, and emotional abuse. Some punishable ingredients of ragging include:

- Physical abuse: This includes acts like assault, battery, causing bodily harm, or endangering the life of a student.
- Mental and emotional abuse: This encompasses acts like humiliation, intimidation, threats, or causing psychological distress.
- Sexual harassment: This involves any form of unwanted sexual behavior, including touching, comments, or demands.
- Criminal acts: Ragging can sometimes involve criminal offenses like extortion, criminal trespass, or unlawful assembly.

The specific punishments for ragging vary depending on the severity of the offense and the applicable laws in the jurisdiction. However, they can range from disciplinary actions like suspension or expulsion from the institution to criminal charges and imprisonment.

Report:-

A webinar on the subject of women empowerment was organized by the Women's Cell at Seth Gyaniram Banshidhar Podar College, run under the Anandilal Podar Trust, Nawalgarh. Keynote speaker SEBI trainer Mr. Jagdish Mane said that women empowerment is needed today, in which his main point was that women should become self-reliant and financially capable, so that they are not dependent on men. If women are self-reliant and financially prosperous, then certainly the webinar on the subject of women empowerment will be meaningful. During this, information on financial planning and stock marketing was provided.

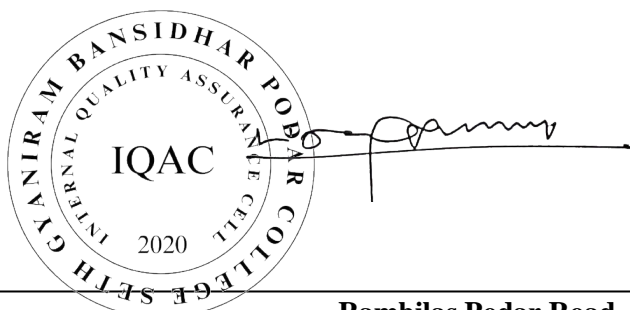

In this event, Prof. Suman Saini, Convener Women Empowerment Cell, Prof. Mahima Soni and Prof. Kavita Jangid inspired the students of Podar College to become self-reliant and strong. In this event, staff members like Rajesh Verma, Ramesh Pareek etc. inspired the students for women empowerment.

Report:-

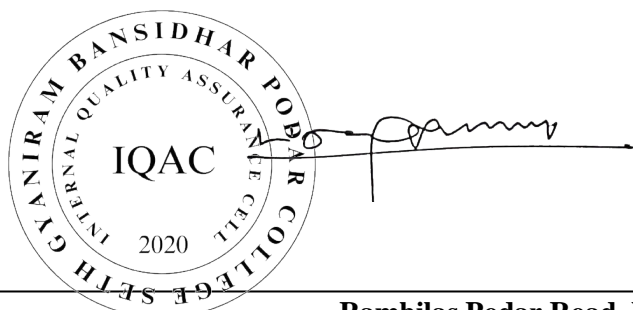

National Girl Child Day was celebrated by the Women's Cell at Seth G.B. Podar College, run by Anandilal Podar Trust, Nawalgarh. The program was organized in the Botany Department.

Principal Dr. Satyendra Singh was the chief guest of the program. The program was presided over by Vice Principal Dr. Vinod Kumar Saini. Women Cell Coordinator Prof. Suman Saini welcomed the guests by presenting them with a bouquet of flowers. Addressing the girls on this occasion, Principal Dr. Satyendra Singh said that education is an important weapon for girl students, which paves the way for their social progress.

Vice Principal Dr. Vinod Kumar Saini told the students that girl education, women empowerment, social evils are the burning issues of the present time, which can be solved only by the young generation. On this occasion, all the students of the college were present.

Female lecturer was present. Addressing the students, they said that girls are the ornaments of the society, hence we should respect girls and give them an opportunity to progress. Girls should be protected from evils like dowry, female foeticide, female infanticide, domestic violence, rape. Just as child marriage has been controlled today, in the same way, the need for public awareness should be emphasized to remove the above social evils from the society.

On this occasion, Prof. Kavita Jangid, Prof. Mahima Soni, Prof. Suchita Jangid, Prof. Vishakha Punkhia, Prof. Poonam Chaudhary, Prof. Reena Saini, Prof. Seema Saini and all the women lecturers were present. Podar Trust Chairman Rajeev K. Podar, Trustee Ms. Vedika Podar, Executive Director M. D. Shanbhag, COO Dr. Rajendra Kumar congratulated and wished the girls on Girl's Day.
