Seth Gyaniram Bansidhar Podar College is one of the best colleges in Rajasthan

ABOUT FDP

The Seven-day Faculty Development Program (FDP) on “Transformative Pedagogy: Advancing Teaching-Learning and Student-Centric Approaches” is designed to empower educators with innovative methodologies that enhance the teaching-learning process and promote active student engagement. This program focuses on transformative pedagogy, which redefines traditional teaching by emphasizing critical thinking, collaboration, and experiential learning. Key topics include the integration of technology in education, the development of inclusive and student-centric curricula, and strategies for fostering a growth mindset among learners. Participants are introduced to modern teaching tools like flipped classrooms, blended learning, and project-based approaches, enabling them to address diverse learning styles effectively. Through interactive sessions, expert lectures, and hands-on workshops, the FDP aims to equip faculty with practical skills and theoretical knowledge to create dynamic and participative classroom environments. By fostering a culture of lifelong learning and adaptability, the program not only enhances the professional development of educators but also ensures the holistic development of students, preparing them to thrive in a rapidly evolving world.

THEMES OF THE FDP:

Redefining Teaching Paradigms:

Emphasizes a shift from traditional lecture-based teaching to active, participatory, and collaborative learning models.

Student-Centric Approaches: Focuses on creating inclusive, engaging, and learner-driven environments that cater to diverse learning needs.

Integration of Technology: Explores innovative tools like flipped classrooms, blended learning, and AI-based teaching aids to enhance classroom effectiveness.

Promoting Critical Thinking: Encourages educators to design activities that foster analytical skills, problem-solving, and independent learning among students.

Experiential Learning: Highlights methods like project-based learning, case studies, and real-world applications to deepen student understanding.

Inclusivity and Equity: Addresses the need for teaching practices that accommodate learners of varied backgrounds, abilities, and interests.

Faculty Empowerment: Equips educators with advanced pedagogical techniques to improve their teaching efficacy and adaptability to changing educational landscapes.

Lifelong Learning Culture: Advocates for continuous professional development to align teaching methodologies with contemporary demands and global standards
